

Using the Lesson

Responsibility Study Chart

In the book Indian School, Teaching the White Man's Way (Cooper, 1999) locate the map on page vi. Have the students locate a boarding school on the map and research the tribes that attended and would be responsible for reviving the languages lost in each school. Do an Internet search to identify the tribes' efforts to revive their languages.

	B.I.A	Tribal Government	Elders	Students
1 Who are the persons that have responsibilities?
2 What are the responsibilities?
3 What is the rule to be evaluated?
4 To whom are they owed?
5 How are they assumed?
6 What are the rewards associated with fulfilling the responsibilities?
7 What are the penalties associated with not fulfilling the responsibilities?				